

Local Anesthesia Course

Saskatchewan Polytechnic is offering a Local Anesthesia continuing education course at Regina Campus, Regina SK. The course is for Registered Dental Hygienists who have not taken a local anesthesia course in their undergraduate program or who have taken a course but do not meet the licensing body's restrictions on local anesthetic administration.

Applicants must:

1. Be licensed by their provincial licensing body;
2. Be practicing in a setting where administration of local anesthesia by dental hygienists is possible;
3. Be physically able to receive local anesthesia drugs;
4. Be current with CPR level "C" ; and
5. Submit a dentist's letter of agreement for providing supervision during your clinical requirements.

The required textbook, Handbook of Local Anesthesia, 6th edition (Malamed 2012) is available from the Saskatchewan Polytechnic Regina Campus bookstore (1-866-569-8398) cost $ 98.95. The course manual will be mailed to you in advance of the course allowing approximately four weeks for completion of self-study objectives prior to the on campus seminar.

At the four-day seminar, you will discuss the material completed by self-study, participate in pre-clinical labs and administer local anesthetic on a partner. You will be evaluated with a performance test and a written exam. To complete the course, you will be required to administer local anesthetics to patients in your practice under the direct supervision of a dentist.
